The resort is truly first class with sixteen luxury one bedroom apartments each fully air conditioned and with private balconies or courtyards. The pool area is breathtakingly beautiful and a pleasant place to relax after a day on the beach or a shopping trip to nearby Kuta, or a day excursion around the island.

Adjacent to the resort is the five star Intercontinental Hotel, and a short walk along the beach is the exclusive Four Seasons Resort. So if it is high quality cuisine you are looking for, or the budget priced fresh seafood served by the beach shack restaurants, then Jimbaran Bay offers the best you will find in Bali.

The Royal Bali Beach Club is only fifteen minutes from Denpasar airport and central to most tourist attractions on Bali. The beaches and golf courses of Nusa Dua and the shopping mecca of Kuta are fifteen minutes away in a taxi, and the boat harbour and Waterbom Park are 25 minutes away.
